Lakeside
 Bed & Breakfast
 a unique mountain retreat

Tucked away right on Wentworth Falls Lake you'll find this the perfect location for your romantic getaway.

Stroll around the Lake or go for a bushwalk - you can do whatever you wish from this conveniently located home.

You have many activities to choose from during the day and dine at some of the finest restaurants outside of Sydney.

Hideaway in the self contained "Reflections Spa Suite" with its own private sitting room & verandah, with Lake views.

Enjoy a glass of champagne as you soak away your stresses in your fabulous corner spa.

"The Lake Suite" offers you waterfront views.

Freshen up in your two person shower after a full day's sightseeing. Stretch out on your comfy queen bed for the best sleep you've had in years.

Perhaps you may choose to watch a DVD or some TV in your fully featured suite.

Curl up in front of the fire with your drink of choice.

Pamper yourself with a well deserved relaxing massage in the privacy of your suite.

Feel the peace and tranquility permeate your being as you relax and refresh like you've been longing to for so long.

Your hearty country cooked breakfast can be enjoyed either in the cosy sun room ...

or on the sandstone verandah to take in incredible water views.

Take a solitary paddle on the Lake in your complimentary kayak. Maybe a spot of fishing.

No matter what the weather, take in the everchanging moods of the Lake. Experience the mists rolling in or the fiery sunsets. A painting in every moment.

Meditate on the beauty of it all.

From the Lake to the Falls

Jamison Creek flows from Wentworth Falls Lake through natural bushland to the Falls themselves... and some of the most dynamic scenery in Australia.

Charles Darwin visited the area in 1830 and walked from the township to the Falls. He was entranced by what he saw.

Prepare yourself for the spectacle of the valley beyond.
